Song of Worship	My Worth Is Not In What I Own

Not all of us will be asked to sell everything that we have, but all of us are commanded to set aside any idol that may be present in our lives. We must all give up relying on our own efforts to earn salvation and instead embrace the grace that alone can redeem us from the curse of sin and death. Do you depend absolutely on the Lord for redemption? Think of the ways you have not loved God with your whole heart and confess your need of Him alone to save you.

If you will be able to assist please see either Hannah or Melissa. Sign-up sheet is located on the bulletin board in the basement.

Our Call to Worship this morning comes from Psalm 97. Here is Charles Spurgeon's commentary on Verse 1.

The Lord reigneth. This is the watchword of the psalm-- Jehovah reigns. It is also the essence of the gospel proclamation, and the foundation of the gospel kingdom. Jesus has come, and all power is given unto him in heaven and in earth, therefore men are bidden to yield him their obedient faith. Saints draw comfort from these words, and only rebels cavil at them. Let the earth rejoice, for there is cause for joy.
