“Let the children of Zion rejoice in the exaltation of their King. He dies no more; his agonizing pangs are over; the contradiction of sinners, their scoffs and reproaches, are among the former things which have forever passed away. Once he was a sign to be spoken against, but now saints and seraphs fall at his feet, and extol him in canticles of rapturous adoration! May we, even here, catch some measure of their spirit, and be prepared by almighty grace for joining them in their ceaseless strains above!”

John MacDuff (1818-1895)

While the participation of the Church Covenant and the Lord's Supper is open only to members of Crosspoint Fellowship, visitors are encouraged to observe and witness this joyous occasion.
