Song of Worship Christ the Sure and Steady Anchor

"Is the burden of guilt intolerable, and are you ready to sink under it? Or are you sinking under a load of sorrow? Whatever is the burden, cast it upon the Lord - and He will sustain you. This foundation is able to bear you up, however great the pressure. Come, you who are weary and heavy-laden, come, and build your hopes, and place your rest here! Oh! What joyful tidings are these! I hope they will prove a word in season to some soul that is weary."

Samuel Davies
Excerpt from the sermon: Jesus Christ, the Only Foundation
Preached on February 13, 1757

ATTENTION ALL MEATLOAF LOVERS!

Join us for our 2nd Annual Covenant Renewal Cook-Off on Sunday, October 6th.
The meatloaf's will be our main dish for the fellowship meal and we will vote on the best meatloaf following the meal.
Last year's Chili Cook-Off was a huge success with T.J. Bettis winning the gold medal!

Matthew Henry's Commentary on 1 Corinthians 3:10-15...

Here the apostle informs us what foundation he had laid at the bottom of all his labours among them—even Jesus Christ, the chief corner-stone. Upon this foundation all the faithful ministers of Christ build. Upon this rock all the Christians found their hopes. Those that build their hopes of heaven on any other foundation build upon the sand. Other foundation can no man lay besides what is laid—even Jesus Christ. Note, The doctrine of our Saviour and his mediation is the principal doctrine of Christianity. It lies at the bottom, and is the foundation, of all the rest. Leave out this, and you lay waste all our comforts, and leave no foundation for our hopes as sinners. It is in Christ only that God is reconciling a sinful world to himself.
