Prayer

"A Christian must not only realize his own utter feebleness - but he must give up what worldlings rely on and admit that "vain is the help of man"...This is the real office of faith. It is simply the linking of our utter weakness - to the omnipotence of Christ! We furnish the weakness - and He furnishes the strength - and that makes the partnership!...What a beautiful picture of my poor, weak, hungry soul - resting on the bosom of the Infinite Love!

Theodore Cuyler, 1882
