"If Jesus had fallen to the temptations of Satan, salvation would be impossible and we would all be damned. He is the only substitute. He is the only Lamb. He is the only sacrifice. He is the only one perfect. He's the only one suited to die for sinners. It is absolutely crucial that He win this battle with the enemy, this consummate battle, this pinnacle of all battles, and as the text indicates, He did."

*John MacArthur
From the sermon, "The Temptation of the Messiah"
Luke 4:3-8*

Psalm 93 - Excerpt from the Treasury of David by C.H. Spurgeon

The church must remain unchanged, and forever be holiness unto the Lord; yes, her King will preserve her undefiled by the intruder's foot. Sacred unto the Lord is the church of Jesus Christ, and so shall she be kept evermore. "Jehovah reigns!" is the first word and the main doctrine of the psalm, and holiness is the final result; a due esteem for the great King will lead us to adopt a behavior becoming his royal presence.
