Hymn of Worship

Oh, the Deep Deep Love of Jesus

In the parable of the prodigal son, we have the character of God towards a returning soul truly and beautifully drawn...He sends his own Spirit to work that return in your soul, to break your heart, to rouse your slumbering spirit, to draw you, win you to his arms. This is your God, - the God whom you have forsaken, from whose ways you have declined, but who, in the very depth of your declension, and in the very extremity of your departure, has never withdrawn his eye of love one moment from you.

Octavius Winslow, 1841
