Hymn of Worship Only A Holy God

"Alas! how vain is man in his best estate! how much weakness and inconsistency even in those whose hearts are right with the Lord! and what reason have we to confess, that we are unworthy, unprofitable servants!"

John Newton, 1772

*So you also, when you have done all that you were commanded, say,
'We are unworthy servants; we have only done what was our duty.'*
Luke 17:10

All the holiness that is in the best and choicest Christians is but a mixed holiness, a weak and imperfect holiness.
Their unholiness is always more than their holiness.

Ah, what a great deal . . .
of pride is mixed with a little humility,
of unbelief is mixed with a little faith,
of peevishness is mixed with a little meekness,
of earthliness is mixed with a little heavenliness,
of carnality is mixed with a little spirituality,
of harshness is mixed with a little tenderness!

Oh, but the holiness of God is a pure holiness,
it is a holiness without mixture;
there is not the least drop or the least dreg of unholiness in God!
"God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all."

1 John 1:5

Thomas Brooks (1608-1680)
