Hymn of Worship

Christ our Hope in Life and Death

May the Holy Spirit lead you into the full belief of the glorious truth that Jesus is alive. It is the keystone of the temple. Press it as you will, the more you lean upon it, the stronger you will find it; the more you rest upon it, the firmer will grow your hope. Only receive it in simple faith, Jesus is alive - alive for you; all you need in this valley of tears is here; all your temporal mercies are secured to you here; all your spiritual blessings are laid up for you here.

Octavius Winslow (1808-1878)

We pray that through today's service you will find HOPE, even in your hopelessness. We would love to visit with you about true HOPE that is found only in the resurrection of our risen Lord & Savior.

J.C. Ryle offered these hopeful words of encouragement in the 1800's and they still offer HOPE today...

If our Master has risen from the grave — then we need not doubt that His disciples shall rise again at the last day. Above all, it ought to fill our hearts with a joyful sense of the fullness of Gospel salvation. Who can condemn us? Our Great Surety has not only died for us, but risen again. (Romans 8:34.) He has died as an atoning sacrifice for our sins — and then arose triumphantly. The payment He made for us, has been accepted. The work of satisfaction has been perfectly accomplished. No wonder that Peter exclaims, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His abundant mercy, has begotten us again to a living HOPE by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead." (1 Peter 1:3.)

Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ. Let us regard it as the source of all our HOPES — and the foundation of all our peace. Ignorance and unbelief may see nothing in the sufferings of Calvary, but the cruel martyrdom of an innocent person. Faith will look far deeper. Faith will see in the death of Jesus, the payment of man's enormous sin-debt to God, and the complete salvation of all who believe.
