Hymn of Reflection

Christ is Mine Forevermore

None of the Apostles ever conceived of separating Jesus' work as Savior from His lordship over the lives of His people. To believe one can be saved without serving Jesus as Lord is to give both ourselves and others a false assurance of salvation, and God will not treat lightly those who lead people astray in this manner (Luke 17:1-2). We do not serve God to get into the kingdom, but if we do not want to serve Him, we are not in the kingdom.

Gift Table for Kenzie & Caleb

Beginning next Sunday, a gift table will be set up in the basement for Kenzie & Caleb, who will be married on July 15th. The table will be set up through Sunday, July 9th.

Facility Update

We have received word from the contractor that hopefully within the next few weeks all windows, including the basement windows, will be replaced and metal siding will be placed over the stucco on the exterior of the building. This past week, the back door was replaced. In addition to the windows and siding, we hope to replace the roof at some point in the near future. We thank God for the financial resources to make these improvements to the facility.

Church of God, Elect and Glorious

Written by James E. Seddon (1915-1983), this text is based on the well-known passage in 1 Peter 2:9-12 where Peter calls the church "a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God" (v. 9). Each stanza of the text begins with one or more of these memorable phrases and then, following Peter's pattern, explains why the church should be such a holy people. Because it is the recipient of God's mercy, the church must be consecrated to holy living as a testimony of praise to God and as a convincing witness to the unsaved.
