Hymn of Reflection

Holy Spirit

“Surely every man walks in a vain show!” - their pursuits, their acts, their pleasures, their desire, their anxieties, their fears, are all equally vain. They are all in a masquerade - they are all deceiving themselves - they are all deluded by the arch magician - the god of this world has blinded their minds. “Surely they bustle about; but only in vain.” Worldly cares, and temporal anxieties disquiet them; but surely it is in vain; they lead to no result; they bring forth no fruit; they do not terminate in their good, or in God's glory.”

J.C. Philpot, 1845

Covenant Renewal Sunday

Make plans to join us October 1st for Covenant Renewal Sunday. During this service, we commit ourselves afresh to the Lord and each other for another year. We will also be renewing our annual church membership. If you will not be present for the service, yet want to continue being a member, please contact one of the Elder's no later than Wednesday.

Come Behold

Rehearsals for the PYC Christmas choir season, “Come Behold” will begin Tuesday, October 3rd from 6-7:30PM. The first rehearsal will be held at Calvary of Neosho. The rehearsal begins at 6PM but the 125 participants will begin arriving around 5:30PM. Especially for this first rehearsal, we will need your assistance with various duties. If you will be available to assist, please let Hannah or Melissa know.

We need never vex ourselves over the smallness of our opportunities; our only care should be that we use the opportunities that are given to us. Our one little word or kindly act, our one look that gives a moment's cheer—may reap fruit for ages! We need not fear to waste our strength in lowliest ministry, to wear out our life in serving others. Nothing is really wasted, which is poured out on God's altar—in service of love for Christ and for His little ones!

-J.R. Miller, 1902-
