Hymn of Reflection He Calls Me Friend

---

We are reconciled as enemies, not as friends; for friends need no reconciliation...But we are very slow learners. Unbelief and infidelity, pride and self-righteousness, guilt and despondency, all conspire to prevent us effectually learning it thoroughly, and as it were finally. Again and again then have we to recommence our first lesson, that we are sinners saved by the pure mercy of God, through the blood shedding of Christ— enemies reconciled and brought near by the death of the Son of God. - J.C. Philpot, 1858

*"For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son..."
Romans 5:10*

Call to Worship - Colossians 1

This morning's Call to Worship is from Colossians, chapter 1. The Prince of Preachers, Charles Spurgeon, had this to say about the first chapter...

As we read these words, we cannot help noticing how positively the apostle speaks. There are no "hope so's," "trust so's," and "ifs," and "buts"; but it, is all, "it is so," and "it is so." And, beloved brethren, concerning eternal matters, nothing but certainties will suffice for us. Allow uncertainties about your estates if you will, but we must have positive assurance concerning eternal things; and nothing short of this ought to content our spirits. Can we all say, as we listen to these words, "God has delivered us from the power of darkness; he has translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son, in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins"?
