Hymn of Reflection O Lord, My Rock and My Redeemer

Are we lost? It was such persons that Christ came to seek and to save. Have we nothing to present to God in order to obtain salvation? He requires nothing at our hands, but to receive it freely from him "without money, and without price." Let "the law then be to us as a schoolmaster, to bring us unto Christ;" and let us look to "Christ as the end of the law for righteousness to every one who believes."

Charles Simeon (1759-1836)

Crosspoint Hymn of the Month

The Hymn of the Month for August is Day by Day, written by Carolina Sandell in 1865. Ms. Sandell wrote this hymn several years after witnessing the sudden drowning of her father, a tragic event that caused her great distress. Having been through that experience, she still could write about God, "He whose heart is kind beyond all measure gives unto each day what he deems best." In the second stanza, she refers to Deuteronomy 33:25b: "as your days, so shall your strength be" (ESV).
