Doxology

This day is the day of salvation because "God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God." There could have been no day of salvation, if a Savior had not appeared, and if that Savior had not become our substitute and surety, salvation would have been denied us by the stern voice of justice. But now Christ has come into the world and died for sin, and because he has finished all the works which he undertook, the Lord our God proclaims for us the day of salvation.

Charles Spurgeon, 1878

A Liturgy for Christmas Morning

Father in Heaven,

Giver of every good and perfect gift;

Pursuer of lost and longing hearts;

Author and Sustainer of each life in this room...

We bless Your name.

Spirit of God,

Illuminator of the glory of Christ;

Bringing conviction for sin;

Helper to those in the family of God...

We look to You.

Christ our Redeemer,

Gentle and lowly in heart;

Humbling Yourself to become Emmanuel, God With Us;

Sacrificing Your very life to purchase ours...

We give You thanks.

Today, on Christmas, give us eyes to see the beauty of Your story.
Give us hearts to receive the gift of Jesus.

Amen.
