Hymn of Reflection	Yet Not I But Through Christ in Me

It is not only your holy duty, but it is your high privilege to rejoice. Your whole life not only may be, but ought to be a sweetly-tuned psalm, a continual anthem of thanksgiving and praise, pouring forth its swelling notes to the God of your salvation; since, beyond the cloudy scene of your present pilgrimage there unveils the light and bliss of celestial glory, on whose portal you read as you pass within—NO CONDEMNATION. Unless, then, you either distrust or disparage this your joyous condition and blessed hope, you must, in the gloomiest hour, and from the innermost depths of your soul, exultingly exclaim —"He is near that justifies me; who will contend with me? Let us stand together. Who is my adversary? Let him come near to me. Behold, the Lord God will help me! who is he that shall condemn me?"

Octavius Winslow,1852

THE LORD'S SUPPER

A STATEMENT CONSIDERING THE LORD'S TABLE

We here at Crosspoint Fellowship do not consider this table our table, but it is the Lord's Table. We consider this time a Holy Communion, which is given to His whole church and signifies our abiding faith and communion in Jesus Christ. Therefore, we are happy to welcome all baptized Christians in good standing (i.e., not under discipline) with an evangelical branch of Christ's Church (i.e., Protestant) to receive Communion here. If you are abiding in unrepentant sin and are unwilling to leave this sin for Christ, we ask that you not take Communion until you have had an opportunity to speak with one of our Elders.

"Let a person examine himself, then,
and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup."
1 Corinthians 11:28

Partaking of the Cup	Luke 22:20
Proclaiming the Lord's Death	1 Corinthians 11:26
Hymn of Benediction	Doxology

Following the benediction, let us greet and welcome one another as Christ has welcomed us, for the glory of God (Romans 15:7), remembering what our Lord teaches us in the Scriptures:
"Above all, keep loving one another earnestly,
since love covers a multitude of sins.
Show hospitality to one another without grumbling" (1 Peter 4:8–9)
